DOC1 Product Strategy

Backbone for innovation

DOC1 Designer & DOC1 Generate provide the core around which innovative new products are being created.

Agile

We expect and embrace changes to the product plan while still striving to achieve strategic goals.

Working alongside customers

We want input from external clients for every project we undertake.

DOC1 Product Strategy

Release strategy

While the primary delivery vehicle remains point releases every 12-18 months we will also deliver urgently required new features via the Early Availability scheme.

Maintenance

We are not immune from bugs! But we have radically improved the performance of our maintenance program in the last few years.
